THE BEACHCOMBER

The sun is setting and the torches are on fire. Better than taking a walk on a deserted beach with your secret lover, and not getting busted. Flavors of strawberry, lychee, lime & pineapple...and paradise.

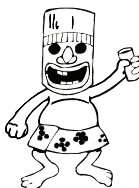

THE NATIVE'S CURSE

Unwelcome intruders landing on the forbidden island are cursed by the natives with a terrible spell...perpetual misery and boredom. The only way to reverse the curse is with this inexplicable mango & lemon tropical rum swill.

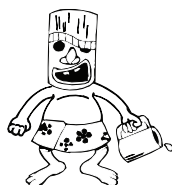

SCORPION STING

Some say if you suck out the poison from the scorpion's sting right away, you'll feel warm and euphoric. Morons. The only sting that can do that is our mix of Jamaican & sugarcane rum, fresh lime, and secret extract!

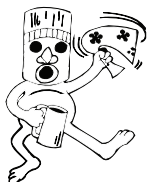

TAHITIAN SWIZZLE

Tahitian bamboo, harvested by moonlight contains a festive tasting juice, and rum. Skeptical? Then unwind as your mouth embraces guava & berry flavors, and a nice nip of rum. Served in a bamboo mug (ok, it's ceramic but it looks like bamboo.)

FU MANCHU

Trader Vic's dark & coconut rums, and some special Kung Fu flavors...super tasty. Only one foo will do, in this not so foo-foo fighting beverage. Served in his own mug likeness.

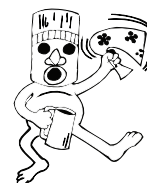

MISERABLE BASTARD

Booted out of the Psychology Academy of Molokai after one year, Suzi never forgot the lessons she learned. Their loss = your gain. A wallop of dark rum and bitter lime is a proven depression management. Served in classic suffering bastard mug.

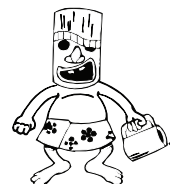

PARALYZED POLYNESIAN

Polynesian Paralysis: a screaming desire not to work, not to do anything that requires any substantial effort either physical or mental. Hey, now that's the right attitude. Made with 4 different rums. Served in a scary brown headhunter.

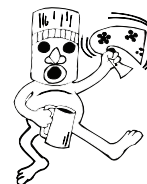

VIRGIN SACRIFICE

Everyday a disturbing spectacle of tyranny ensues. A gang of Elvis impersonators entices another virgin with fermented blue nectars, then throws her into the volcano...which is not very romantic. Served in a mean green tiki with the cherry intact.

ONE EYED WILLY

A dangerous and deadly potion. Various rums, 151 rum, and some orange, pineapple and lime. Yep, this salty dog is served in a pirate mug. Down the hatch!

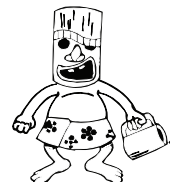

PSYCHO ZOMBIE (SLUSH)

A zombie walks into a bar...that's it, he just does, cause he's not too smart. Drink a few rum soaked cherry, cola, & lime slushies and become completely brainless too. Served in a timeless never-die green tiki vessel.

COCONAUT

A cross between a tropical white Russian and a spicy pina colada, but not really. It's lip-licking delicious. Served not in a coconut, but a rocket ship...just kidding. It comes in a beautiful brown bamboo mug.

CRUMMY SCOUNDREL

An absurd blend of amusing flavors and pirate-like fun...but with no pirates. Blackberry, pomegranate, banana, and extra hooch. Comes in a coconut, because there's no coconut flavor. Logical.

HEADHUNTER

A native headhunter or a corporate headhunter...who'd win? Suzi says, "the guy with the higher tolerance." Served not in a fancy suit mug, but a green headhunter mug. An aggressive mix of spiced rums, lime, orange, and nut.

LARGE & SHARED DRINKS

PSYCHOTIC SUZI

Suzi says, 'Your petty concerns of authenticity are irrelevant.' A 20 oz. delirium of Redrum, secret syrup, and a whole lime. Amazing! Served in a neat Psycho Suzi's mug. (A mighty fine souvenir for a tolerable $8)

LEILANI'S FIRE BOWL serves 2-4

Never mess with a woman scorned. 48 oz. of liquor-on-fire nonsense. A cadre of booze and bozosity, with flavors of mango, pineapple, and orange. This bad gal comes in a fire breathing volcano bowl.

ERUPTION IN PARADISE serves 2-4

Lacking any decorum, this potion will bring you to new heights of disgrace. Made with a superb blend of exotic rums and fruit nectars. Served in a 54 oz. smoking volcano.
